CALIFORNIA STATE ASSOCIATION OF COUNTIES 118th ANNUAL MEETING

This year the California State Association of Counties (CSAC) annual meeting will be held in Los Angeles County, November 27 through November 30, 2012, in the City of Long Beach.

The conference is titled: "Voyage to Stability," and it is designed to bring county leaders from across California together to discuss issues and challenges and to plan for the year ahead. Some of the featured topics will include:

- Improving Outcomes for Children and Families: Exploring Community-School Partnerships
- What Happened in 2012 to 2011 Realignment?
- Critical Information on Pension Reform
- Public Service Ethics Laws and Principles for County Officials

The CSAC meeting provides the opportunity to meet and exchange ideas with fellow managers from the State's various counties. If your schedule allows, you are encouraged to attend.

For program information go to: <http://www.csac.counties.org/2012-csac-annual-meeting>.
